

The Youth Club members watering the saplings around village pond

The VDC members engrossed in a discussion in Makreda

The Farmer's Club members gathered before going to Modipurum for an exposure visit

The students being oriented before a school rally on environment

The children getting ready for tree plantation at a common place in Makreda village

The Project organized a cricket tournament for youth – the winners are receiving prize

Self Help Group members learning to maintain group register and other documents

An orientation workshop with Self Help Group members in Makreda

The Self Help Group members making and selling pickle

