

The doctor checks eye of village head of Bhikanpur during eye camp

The self help group members in an organically grown spinach in a model garden

The project staff share the Horticulture schemes with VDC Members

The self help group members making carrot pickle for sale

A vegetable garden in the school mobilizes children to have one at their home

SHG members checking the documentation before opening their bank account

The project staff identified village pond for plantation which was cleaned under NAREGA scheme

Self help group members ready to plant seedlings during orientation workshop on kitchen gardens